AMEND Senate Bill No. 717

House Bill No. 583*

(2) No more than one (1) member appointed in accordance with subdivision (b)(1)(A) – (C) shall be appointed from the same county.

(3) The governor shall appoint a chairman from among the members of the commission. The term as chairman shall be for two (2) years.

(c)

(1) In order to stagger the terms of the members, the governor shall appoint the initial members of the commission as follows:

(A) Six (6) members shall be appointed for a term of two (2) years;

(B) Six (6) members shall be appointed for a term of three (3) years; and

(C) Six (6) members shall be appointed for a term of four (4) years.

(2) Thereafter, the length of term for appointed members shall be five (5) years.

(3) In case of death or resignation of any appointed member of the commission, the member's successor shall be appointed by the governor for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(4) Upon appointment of the initial terms of the Tennessee historical commission, the membership of the commission as it existed prior to the effective date of this act shall be vacated.

(d) In making appointments to the commission, the governor shall strive to ensure that at least one (1) person serving on the commission is sixty (60) years of age or older and that at least one (1) person serving on the commission is a member of a racial minority. At least three (3) persons serving on the commission shall have an academic background, preferably a master's degree, in history or historic preservation, or both. In making appointments, the appointing authority shall make a conscious effort to ensure that persons meeting these criteria are inclusive of African-Americans and persons of Native American ancestry.

(e) Members who have been granted the title "member emeritus" by an action of the commission, or who were granted the title "member emeritus" prior to January 15, 2013, by action of the Tennessee Historical Commission, shall retain the same rights and privileges of other members, except the right to vote at meetings of the commission and the right to reimbursement of expenses.

(f) All members of the commission may be paid necessary expenses while engaged in the work of the commission. All reimbursement for travel expenses shall be in accordance with the provisions of the comprehensive travel regulations as promulgated by the department of finance and administration and approved by the attorney general and reporter.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 62-1-105, is amended by deleting subsection (c) in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:

(A) The board shall have an executive director, who shall be a certified public accountant with an active certificate in the state. The board shall appoint the executive director and shall establish the compensation for the executive director. The board shall establish the qualifications for the executive director.

(B) The executive director of the board shall have an adequate staff, including part-time personnel, as determined by the board. The executive director shall be responsible for the daily operation of the board, including, but not limited to:

- (i) Maintaining and securing all necessary records and files;
- (ii) Ensuring adequate meeting space for board meetings;
- (iii) Implementing board policies and procedures;
- (iv) Informing the board about state policies and procedures;
- (v) Directing the activities of board staff;
- (vi) Coordinating the operations and activities of the board and its staff with the division of regulatory boards in the department of commerce and insurance; and
- (vii) Any other matters delegated by the board.

(C) The executive director and the board staff shall be subject to any performance review and other general requirements as set forth in title 8, chapter 30, part 1, and as otherwise required of state employees.

(2) The board shall retain and establish the qualifications and compensation for investigators and other staff requiring professional qualifications.

(3) The executive director and all members of the board's staff requiring professional qualifications shall serve at the pleasure of the board. However, the commissioner, after consultation with the board, shall have the authority to dismiss the executive director for cause.

(A) The board shall determine annually in advance its expenditures for equipment, peer review and other professional programs and participation in the activities designed to promote communications, reciprocity and collaboration with other state boards of accountancy. The expenditures so established, together with all other expenses of the board, shall not exceed the fees received by the board, including the accrual of fees previously received.

(B) The commissioner of finance and administration shall inform the board annually, for budgeting purposes, the allocation of overhead expense to the board.

(C) Any expenditure by the board under this section shall be subject to approval by the commissioner of finance and administration, pursuant to the board's annual budget submitted to the commissioner of commerce and insurance and approved by the commissioner of finance and administration.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 62-36-114, is amended by deleting subdivision (5) in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:

(5) Receive, administer and account for all moneys derived under this chapter and transfer these funds to the state treasurer, who shall keep the moneys in a fund to be known as the "geologist and soil scientist regulatory fund." The fund shall be used to defray expenses incurred in the administration of the Geologist Licensure Act of 2007 and the Soil Scientist Licensure Act of 2009.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 62-18-211, is amended by deleting subdivision (6) in its entirety and by substituting instead the following new language:

(6) Receive, administer, and account for all moneys derived under the provisions of this part, and transfer such funds to the state treasurer who shall keep such moneys in a fund, herein established, to be known as the "geologist and soil scientist regulatory fund." The fund shall be used to defray expenses incurred in the administration of the Geologist Licensure Act of 2007 and the Soil Scientist Licensure Act of 2009.
